MEMORANDUM # 95

TEN

THREE

27 JULY 1953

1. [REDACTED] informed me that Lestapin is visited about once every two months by a representative of the Soviets, a certain [REDACTED]. Usually the Russians ask only minor questions concerning social laws and international law; most of the time he [REDACTED] is engaged in high falutin' theoretical postulating in the realm of political economy.

2. I believe that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] should be the only ones to talk with the communists or any official of foreign organizations. However, position of [REDACTED] is probably would be best for [REDACTED] to know the frequency and the next time he appears.
